Dr. Fox,

ALL SORTS.

Senator Stewart left on last evening's train.

J. B. Olsen, the stenographer, is in the city reporting the Hamilton case.

The Indian Summer still hangs on as if it was paving the way for an appropriation.

A candid admission is good for the soul. Read Mr. Bicknell's open letter in another column.

The Eureka Sentinel says: Things have been too prosperous this year to do the Democrats any good.

El, the youngest son of Mrs. Bicknell, had his right leg broken yesterday by a pile of lumber falling on it.

The Eureka Sentinel says John Sparks has a pair of horns from a Texas steer that measures 7 feet 6 inches from tip to tip.

For fine watch and jewelry repairing go to Golden's. We are receiving new and elegant designs in jewelry every day. self

Attention is called to the announcement of Mr. Siddons, the watchmaker. Since being burned out he has located in the Italian-American barber shop opposite the Postoffice. His work always speaks for itself.

To go into hiding to avoid the bloodthirsty husband of Mme. Melba is not a dignified proceeding for the Duke of Orleans. Although the Duke probably does not relish lying hidden from his foe, still it is wise discretion, for the injured husband is an expert duelist, and whether the duke selected pistol or rapier the result would be fatal to himself.

Illusion.

Every body likes to be humbugged more or less. Carson people like it as well as any body.

Tonight the king of illusionists will give his remarkable performance at the Opera House. He has some of the latest things in the line of necromancy and if the audience don't think the devil himself is his partner we will be surprised. Such a show always takes in Carson and there is promise of a full house.

The Hamilton Case.

In the Hamilton case yesterday the plaintiff was nearly all day on the stand. His testimony was substantially the same as published in the APPEAL in the previous case. The testimony of absent witnesses who testified in the first trial was read and admitted. All the testimony will probably be in today.

Death of Dr. Smart.

Ed. Reynolds received a dispatch from Seattle last evening to the effect that his brother-in-law, Dr. Smart had died while sitting in a chair. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds left for Seattle on last evening's train. Dr. Smart was a leading physician in this city years ago, and well and favorably known to old Carsonites.

A BAD INVESTMENT.

A Candidate Who Got Left Twice.

About three years ago there was a gentleman in this city who was running for a high office on the State ticket.

While his wife was away a lady who moves in the upper circles called at his house one evening between 8 and 9 o'clock, expecting to find his wife at home.

She chatted about half an hour and returned to her home, which was in the immediate vicinity.

Next morning the candidate was waited on by two women and notified that the call of the lady had been noted and the exact time of her entering and leaving the house. Unless he paid $1000 cash they would spring it on him and it would beat him in the campaign, and his wife would begin divorce proceedings at once.

He consulted a lawyer in this city who was best of all posted on the records of the women in question, but he said:

"The best thing you can do is to compromise as cheaply as possible. These people will stop at nothing."

He finally settled for $600, and shortly afterwards was beaten in the Convention. He set a watch on the blackmailers and found that they were in the habit of dressing in mail attire and circulating about the city at night to watch private residences and pick up whatever stray bits of scandal would put any money in their pockets.

Joe Douglass's Simile.

It has long been doubted in Virginia whether Joseph M. Douglas, the Comstock millionaire, could get off anything good outside of a check. But he can.

Several weeks ago he hired a man to fix a sewer connected with one of his houses on C street. The man finally showed up for work and pegged along until Joe began to think he would never quit. The lessee of the premises finally urged Joe to have the job completed, when the latter replied:

"Never mind him; he reminds me of a pig I had in Missouri. I had to pull his ears out to get him to the slops and pull his tail out to get him away."

California Gossip.

First Boodler—Where you goin' Bill?

Second Boodler—Canada; the Grand Jury mean business.

First Boodler—Why, Murphy says the Grand Jury's illegal.

Second Boodler—Can't help that I'm goin' all the same. I would n't bank a cent on Murphy, he's been reversed too often.

A Successful Venture.

Mr. Meder is to be congratulated on his successful handling of "The Interviewer." He cleared over $500 here and in Virginia City and as a tribute to his excellent management, the company presented him with a diamond ring.

Accessory After the Fact.

The following letter has been received in this city:

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 7, '91.

S. Summerfield, Carson City, Nevada—My DEAR SIR: Having been informed that the APPEAL accuses you of notifying Mr. Davis of the indictment found against him last Winter, I would say that so far as I know you had nothing to do with it. I assume the whole responsibility, and frankly say that I was the one, and I believe the only one who kept him posted in regard to all proceedings as to indictment and subsequent action thereon. I only heard of the attack made on you, today, and I hasten to contradict it as far as I possibly can, believing a gross injustice has been done you.

Very sincerely yours,

CHAS. F. BICKNELL.

If Mr. Bicknell had thought a couple of times he doubtless would not have made the admissions in the above remarkable document, or if he had read even once article 4575 of the revised Statutes.

The C & C R R.

The excellent condition of the Carson & Colorado road bed is frequently referred to by travelers. The road has recently been put in condition for the approaching winter. Considerable work has been done at the summit of the White Mountains, and in a number of places stone walls built at points where the embankments were liable to damage by being washed away. Superintendent Laws had men at work this week at New Boston, laying a mile of new pipe and also putting in a new tank at the spring from which the company derives its water supply for use at the Station.

America's Favorite Musical Artist.

Charles E. Schilling, manager Goodyear, Elitch & Schilling's Minstrels, has been connected with the best minstrel and pantomime companies for years. He is considered the greatest producer of original ideas in minstrelsy in his country. He is the originator of instrumental comedy, and has honestly earned the title of premier musical artist of the world. He will appear here at the Opera House Monday Evening Nov. 16th with Goodyear, Elitch & Schilling's Minstrels.

Skipped, Etc.

Last night Skipped by the Light etc., was presented to a good house.

The play abounds in funny situations, rollocking scenes and lots of genuine chances to laugh. It was also well presented by a good company.

John C. Leach is the greatest dialectician who ever struck Carson, and his Chinese impersonation is worth a dollar of any man's money.

Martin is a refined and satisfactory comedian and Hagen as the Irish policeman, captured the house.

Empire Thanksgiving Shoot.

James Wiggins, the Empire ruttler has secured 250 turkeys, ducks, geese, chickens and pigeons for a grand thanksgiving shoot and has placed the fee down to the lowest rates.

Turkeys, 200 yards, 50c a shot. Geese at the same rate. Chickens at a distance of 50 yards, shotguns being used, with nothing heavier than No. 6 shot, 25 cents a shot. Birds must be knocked prostrate. Parlor rifle shooting, 50 yards, at turkey's head, 25cents per shot.

The sport will be conducted on a square basis and judges will decide differences on the spot.

No one is barred from the contest and a special invitation is extended the Carson and Virginia sharpshooters.

In the evening a grand masquerade ball will be given in Wiggins' hall. Costumes can be secured in the ante-room of the hall and a line of new stables have been put up for visitors who come with horses. Mrs. Kohle, the caterer will spread a Thanksgiving turkey banquet during the dance and is located but a few steps from the pavilion. o5td

There is no Secret

About your buying shoes to advantage. You may not know any more about the quality of leather than you do about a lost comet but that is no reason why you should get "stuck." Either you get your money's worth or you don't and if you don't is is your own fault. We are in the shoe business because we happen to know something about shoes and leather. It is "bread and butter" to us, therefore we make it a STUDY. Of the knowledge you get as much benefit as though you possessed it yourself for we place it entirely in your disposal and if you think that other houses can quote lower prices than we do, come and look at the goods and and prices. We will put our time against yours and we feel confident that the result will be a mutual benefit.
